

Game #28 – San Jose Barracuda (16-7-1-3) vs. Milwaukee Admirals (19-8-2-2)

Friday, January 6, 2017

7:00 PM PST, SAP Center, San Jose, Calif.

Tonight's Matchup: The San Jose Barracuda look for their sixth straight win on home ice as they welcome in the Milwaukee Admirals for the first time in team history. Friday's matchup is also San Jose's first game against a non-Pacific Division opponent this season.

In 2015-16, the Barracuda went 3-3 against non-Pacific Division foes and 1-2 at home. The Admirals are a perfect 5-0 against the Pacific this season after topping the San Antonio Rampage three times and the Texas Stars twice.

Spectacular Special Teams: Despite allowing a pair of power-play goals to the Rampage on Wednesday the Barracuda still sit atop the league on the PK (87.9%). The Barracuda also matched a season high with three power-play tallies on Wednesday and are now third in the AHL on the man advantage (27.2%).

Home Sweet Home: On Wednesday, the Barracuda set a franchise record with their fifth straight home win and extended their home point streak to a franchise long eight games.

All-Star Nods: On Thursday the AHL announced that Barracuda Goaltender Troy Grosenick and rookie Forward Danny O'Regan had been named to the 2017 All-Star game, which will take place in Lehigh Valley at the end of the month. Grosenick is having a career campaign in his fourth season as a pro, posting a 9-5-1 record in 19 games played. The Brookfield, WI, native leads the AHL in shutouts (5), is 12th in wins, sixth in save percentage (2.06) and T-third in goals-against average (.929). Amongst AHL rookies, O'Regan ranks second in points (31) and assists (21) and is third in points per game (1.15). He also ranks first on the Barracuda in points, T-first assists and second in goals (10).

Heed Check: Among defenseman in the AHL, Barracuda blueliner Tim Heed ranks second in the league in points (30) and T-first in assists (21). He is also T-second in goals (9), T-first in power play goals (6), and first in game-winning goals (3). Heed is second on the Barracuda in points, T-first in assists, third in goals, first in power play goals, T-first in game-winning goals and T-second in plus/minus (+8). On Wednesday, Heed potted a pair of power-play tallies in the third period to lead the Barracuda over the Rampage, 4-2. The former Defenseman of the Year in the Swedish Hockey League was recalled to the Sharks for San Jose's game on Thursday but did not dress in the contest. Heed is riding a four-game point streak (2+5=7) from Dec. 28 to now and has points in 9 of his last ten games (4+12=16).

Marcus Soaring: After not registering a point in 10 games from Nov. 11 to Dec. 11, Marcus Sorensen has points in five straight (3+2=4) and seven of his last eight (4+3=6). Sorensen is tied for the team lead in plus/minus (+9) and is T-third in goals (8).

San Jose's Last Time Out: The San Jose Barracuda scored three power-play goals on Wednesday and Troy Grosenick made 36 saves to lead the Barracuda to a 4-2 win at SAP Center over the San Antonio Rampage. Danny O'Regan and Marcus Sorensen each scored in the first for San Jose before A.J. Greer tallied late in the frame for San Antonio and Gabriel Bourque evened the score in the second. In the third, Tim Heed laced two bombs from the point on the power to give San Jose all the insurance needed to earn their fifth straight home win.

Milwaukee's Last Time Out: The Milwaukee Admirals jumped out to a 2-0 lead with a pair of power-play goals on Monday against the Rockford IceHogs and rolled to a 5-2 victory on home ice at UW-Milwaukee Panther Arena. Trevor Murphy scored twice, and Anthony Bitetto, Pontus Aberg, and Justin Kirkland each tallied for the Ads while Marek Mazanec earned the win by making 28 saves.

The Oakland native finished enters his 19th season as the head coach of San Jose’s top development affiliate and his 21th season overall with the Sharks organization. In his 19 seasons as head coach, Sommer has compiled a 664-596-48-69-62 (W-L-T-OTL-SOL) record in the regular season and has reached the postseason nine times, including reaching the Calder Cup playoffs in each of the last two seasons.

The San Jose Sharks dressed 20 players during the 2015-16 season that developed under Sommer’s tutelage. In fact, 38 players have made their NHL debuts with the Sharks over the last ten seasons -- including Justin Braun, Matt Tennyson, Dylan DeMelo, Tommy Wingels, and Melker Karlsson.

Roy Sommer surpassed Frank Mathers (1,256 games coached) for the most games coached in AHL history on March 26, 2014 in Worcester’s 5-3 victory in Lewiston, ME over the Portland Pirates. Sommer has coached 1412 AHL games – all with the SJ Sharks AHL affiliates. In total, he has been a head coach in 1,746 games in the AHL and ECHL. Last season, coach Sommer surpassed Hockey Hall of Famer Fred “Bun” Cook (636 wins) for the most wins in AHL history with his 637th win on February 10, 2016 in a 4-2 victory over the Ontario Reign at SAP Center.

In 2009-10, Sommer led the Worcester Sharks to a franchise record 49 wins and captured the regular season Atlantic Division title. After nine seasons in Worcester, MA (2006-15); Sommer moved with the franchise to San Jose, CA to coach the Barracuda during the 2015-16 season.

As head coach for San Jose’s top development team, Sommer has coached 95 players who’ve spent time in the National Hockey League, including forward Logan Couture, who was named 2010-11 PlayStation “Sharks Rookie of the Year.”

Sommer, 59, began coaching San Jose’s top development affiliates in 1998-99 with the AHL’s Kentucky Thoroughblades. He coached the T-Blades for three seasons before San Jose relocated their AHL team to Cleveland.

In his first season with Kentucky, the Thoroughblades registered franchise records for most regular season wins (44), most road wins (21) and total points (98) in a season while posting the AHL’s fifth-best record. This success came despite having 17 players promoted to the NHL during the season.

From 1999-2001, Sommer’s club went 84-50-21-5 to capture two consecutive Mid-Atlantic Division titles and went to the Calder Cup Playoffs each season. Sommer’s success was recognized during the 1999-00 season with his selection as the head coach for the Canadian All-Star Team, where his squad toppled PlanetUSA, 8-3. Before being named head coach of the Thoroughblades in 1998, Sommer spent two seasons (1996-98) as an assistant coach with the San Jose Sharks. With San Jose, Sommer was responsible for pre-scouting upcoming opponents for their offensive and defensive tendencies, line combinations and special teams’ tactics. In addition, he assisted in running practices and provided special on-ice extended workouts with scratched players and those rehabilitating injuries.

Before Sommer joined San Jose, he was head coach of the ECHL’s Richmond Renegades from 1991-96 and was named 1995-96 Coach of the Year after leading his team to a league best 46-11-13 mark and a league record 105 points in capturing the Brabham Cup (best regular season record). Sommer led the Renegades to the Riley Cup (league championship) in 1994-95 after posting a 41-20-7 regular season record. In addition, he served as head coach of the ECHL’s East All-Star Team in 1994-95 and the North All-Star Team in 1995-96.

Sommer’s additional ice hockey coaching experience includes assistant coaching stints with the Albany Choppers and Muskegon Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League and working with USA Hockey as an assistant coach at several evaluation camps for 16- and 17-year-old players.

In 1998, he served as head coach and general manager for the silver-medal winning Team USA (4-1-0 record) at the International Ice Hockey Federation In-Line Hockey World Championships in Anaheim. Sommer’s squads won gold medals in each of the first two tournaments (1996 in St. Paul, Minn. and 1997 in Anaheim) and posted undefeated records each year. His three-year coaching mark at this prestigious tournament stands at 17-1-0.

The former Bay Area youth hockey player coached Roller Hockey International’s San Jose Rhinos for three seasons (1994-96), including capturing the Murphy Cup (league championship) in 1995. In addition, Sommer served as head coach for RHI’s 1996 Western Conference All-Star Team.

Before stepping behind the bench, Sommer played nine seasons of professional ice hockey. A sixth round selection by the Toronto Maple Leafs in 1977, Sommer played in the Leafs system as well as those of the St. Louis Blues, Edmonton Oilers, New Jersey Devils and Pittsburgh Penguins. The highlight of Sommer’s NHL career came during the 1980-81 season when, as a teammate of Wayne Gretzky, Sommer scored a goal in his NHL debut with the Edmonton Oilers.

Sommer was captain of the Wichita Wind from 1980-83 and again with Muskegon in 1986-87. Sommer, who played left wing and center, was a member of the AHL Calder Cup Champion Maine Mariners in 1983-84 and helped lead Muskegon to the 1985-86 IHL title (Turner Cup). He played his junior hockey for the Spruce Grove Mets, which won the 1975 Centennial Cup, and for the Calgary Centennials. Sommer was a member of the United States National Team at the World Junior Championships in 1976-77.

Sommer resides in San Jose, CA. with his wife Melissa and their three children: Marley, Castan and Kira.
